Bangkok - Ayutthaya - Bangkok

Activities : Boat Travel,Historical sites and Temple Visits
Duration : One Day Tour
Itinerary

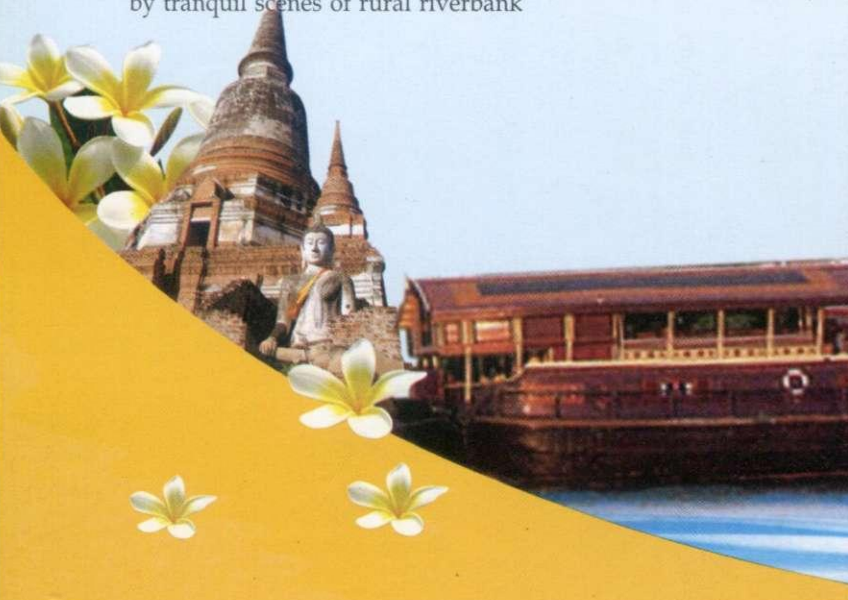

Cruise either to or from Bang Pa-In, the old Royal Summer Palace and follow by a visit of Ayutthaya, the former capital of Thailand. (1350-1767 AD)

River of Kings

Reverently referred to as the "River of Kings", the mighty Chao Phraya River has nurtured Thai People for century and still remains the nation's main artery for water, transportaion and internal trade. The Chao Phraya stretches 230 km beyond Bangkok

Rice Barge Floating Boutique

An Ideal way to become acquainted with Thailand's legendary past and recount Thailand's great cultural heritage and history, is aboard the Mekhala, a 35 year old rice barge converted into a floating boutique hotel sporting modern on-board accommodations. Cruising upstream towards Ayutthaya, passing famous landmarks along the way, the concrete scenes of Bangkok are gradually replaced by tranquil scenes of rural riverbank

Bang Pa-in Summer Palace

The Bang Pa-in Palace is one of the country's most famous attractions, located on the banks of the Chao Phraya River in Ayutthaya Province.
Thai palatial complex, built in the reign of King Rama V, served as a royal summer residence. The most striking feature of the palace is Phra Thinang Aisawan Thipha-at a Thai pavilion situated in the middle of a lake, regarded by many as one of the finest examples of Thai architecture. Royal buildings scattered throughout the compound were constructed in variety of contrasting modes, dominated by Chinese, Italian and Victorian architectural styles. Unfortunately, the only building open to visitors is the Chinese-style Phra Thinang Wehat Chamrum, which houses the court.
